Zeke Jones, of Greenshoro, is on the list of Marshals for the occasion.

Death of Capt. W. F. Avery.

We are deeply pained to announce the death of the gentleman whose name is mentioned above. He expired yesterday morning, after a brief illness, at the residence of father-in-law, Maj. W. A. Smith, in Johnston county.

As a journalist and gentleman Capt. Avery was well known throughout the length and breadth of North Carolina. As editor of the Piedmont Press, Charlotte Observer and Blue Ridge Blade he established a reputation as, perhaps, the most brilliant journalist of the State. His splendid talents were not so much admired, however, as were the amiability, the real nobility of soul, and the high-toned chivalry which were pre-eminently stamped upon the man. We have no heart, to write about the subject of this sketch. He was one of the nearest and dearest friends the writer of this little notice ever had. Words said in praise of him might, therefore, be regarded as partial eulogiums.

A more appropriate notice will be seen in our editorial columns.

Discovery in North Carolina.

Under this caption the late issue of the Blue Ridge Blade has the following in relation to a discovery in this State of a skeleton of the pre-historic man. Here is what is said:

Something new is being discovered almost daily, much of which is in confirmation of the existence of a race of people of whom we have no knowledge outside of that obtained from the mounds known in various localities on this continent. A correspondent of the Knoxville Tribune says he has just opened a mound near Wolf Creek, in Western North Carolina, that was eight feet high, in which was the skeleton of a man, in a fair state of preservation, that was seven feet long. Around this skeleton was burnt rock; under it firecoals and ashes. The mound is supposed to have been three thousand years old.

Every smoker should use the Favorite cigarette roller manufactured by the Hope Manufacturing Co., 45 High street, Boston, Mass. *

Important Change Rumored.

There are rumors of important changes on the Piedmont Air-Line Railroad, and we find the following in regard to it in the Charlotte Observer of yesterday:

"Owing to the fact that there is a likelihood of the Air-Line road changing hands at an early day, the trains will cease to run through from Richmond to Atlanta soon.—Passengers for points South by that route will be compelled to change cars at the Junction. This will also cause another change by landing passengers for this place at the North Carolina Railroad depot instead of at the Air-Line depot as at present. When this change will take place it is not yet known, but it will probably be within the next week, as the sale of the Air-Line will be made on the 5th.

The same paper in speaking of the consequences likely to flow from the sale of the Atlanta Air-Line says:

The sale of the Atlanta and Richmond Air-Line railroad, which is advertised to take place on the 5th of December, is likely to produce some right serious changes in the principal freight lines to this city, the character of which will depend entirely upon who the purchasers of the road may be. This question has received a good deal of discussion from Railroad men, and several surmises have been made. The general impression, however, is that Robinson, the President of the Seaboard and Roanoke, Raleigh and Gaston, and Raleigh and Augusta Air-Line roads, will become the purchaser, in which event the Air-Line will be run in connection with these three roads instead of with the Richmond and Danville as at present. Only a few miles of railroad are to be built before there will be a route to Raleigh via the Carolina Central and Raleigh and Augusta Air-Line, which will be a mile shorter than the present. When this is finished, which it is expected will be done by the first of January, the line will be complete to Norfolk and thence to Baltimore by the Bay line of steamers, which is under the control of this corporation. If this arrangement is perfected a line will be formed which will offer a strong competition with the Richmond and Danville.

The Electoral Vote.

To-day the count of the electoral vote of this State will be completed, and it will be given to our readers in our next issue. At present we can only roughly estimate Tilden's majority somewhere between 15,000 and 16,000. It certainly cannot fall below the first mentioned figure, and may exceed the latter. It will be remembered that this is exclusive of the eight counties in default, returns from which would materially increase the Democratic majority. A list of these counties has already been published. As the returns from the defaulting counties will have no material effect upon the issue, the result will be proclaimed without waiting on them.

The Electoral College of the State convenes in this city on the first Wednesday in next month, which is the 6th.

Settling Sheriffs.

Yesterday Sheriff John Cobb, of Edgecombe county, arrived in this city and settled with the State Treasurer. He paid in $8,625.81 as general tax; $6,822.37 as special tax; educational $612.75, making a total of $16,060.93.

Sheriff William Latham, of Ashe county, also put in an appearance, and paid in $1,239.08 as general tax; $1,133 11 special, a total of $2,372 19.

Sheriff E. Everett, of Swain county, deposited $328 93 general tax and $305 37 special; total $634.30. Thus far sixteen sheriffs have settled. At this time last year thirty-three had settled.

From an exchange we clip the following brief mention of an illustration of a scene in this city. Vessels floating majestically upon the surface of a beautiful sheet of water is peculiarly suggestive of the scenery in and about this inland town. Here is the extract:

"The New York Varieties has a very truthful and accurate illustration of a party pursued by a vicious bull at Raleigh, in this State, in the background of which is a beautiful sheet of water, with vessels floating majestically upon its bosom. The picture looks very Raleighish"!

Young Men's T. & V. Club.

Young Men's Tilden and Vance club met at Metropolitan Hall last evening but no business was transacted, the club adjourning to meet at the same place next Friday evening. We learn that it is proposed to make the organization a permanent one under the title of the Raleigh Democratic Club, and that a regular headquarters will be established. The idea is an excellent one and we hope it will be fully carried out.

Jugged.

Thursday John Mitchell, colored, meandered into the office of the Register of Deeds and abstracted therefrom a gold pen, the property of Mr. S. L. Riddle. The theft was discovered and John handed over to the police. The case came before Mayor Manly yesterday, and in default of a $200 bail bond John went to jail to await trial at the next term of our Superior Court.

Attemped Arson.

Yesterday morning Rachel LeGraud, col., was before Mayor Manly, charged with setting fire to the residence of J. W. Watson, Esq., of this city. The evidence was conclusive against Rachel, and a $500 bail bond was demanded for her appearance at the next term of the Wake county Superior Court. This she could not give, so to jail she went, and her next quarters will be in the penitentiary.

A Present to the Members.

Yesterday morning the members of the House of Representatives and Senate found upon their desks a copy of Turner's N. C. Almanac and Annual State Record, presented by the publisher, Mr. James H. Enniss, of this city.

Mill and Cotton Gin Burned.

The grist and saw mill and cotton gin of J. A. Ford, near Wilson's Mills, Johnston county, were destroyed by fire Thursday night. A match in the cotton was the cause. The property was partly insured.

The remedy resting on the basis of instrinsic worth demands the confidence of all. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is known and used most satisfactorily throughout the land, as is attested by its great sales. Your druggist keeps it.

To Lovers of Good Eating.

THE NEWS, Raleigh, N. C.

Our subscribers will greatly oblige us by giving prompt information of any delay in receiving their papers.

IT was reported on yesterday that the official returns from Davidson county had not been received, by the Secretary of State. This is incorrect. The returns are in, according to law.

THE arrival of Tweed in New York will draw off public attention a little from the thieves who are trying to steal Democratic ballots in South Carolina, Florida, and Louisiana.

THE dispatches this morning inform the startled world that Mr. Stephens of Georgia has gained ten pounds of flesh; and that Mr. Tweed, of Ludlow St. Jail, has lost seventy pounds of flesh. This is the difference between Tweedle-dum and tweedle-dee.

IT IS no exaggeration to say that the NEWS is the finest advertising medium in this city. We are not aware that its circulation is equalled by that of either of our neighbors: if its circulation is exceeded by that of any newspaper in North Carolina, we are ignorant of the fact. Advertisers will consider these facts.

IN regard to the balloting for Speaker of the House, in the Democratic caucus last Monday, a misapprehension has got abroad. When the 14th ballot was reached, the name of Mr. Charles Price was withdrawn, but in spite of the withdrawal, four votes were cast for him. On the 15th ballot, his name was again brought forward, and he received the nomination.

THE PUBLIC PRINTING.

We have already briefly stated that the question as to who should be entrusted with the public printing, was decided in the Democratic caucus on Thursday night. The contest was pretty lively; and excited a good deal of interest. There were three contestants in the field. The Observer, the Sentinel and the NEWS. On the first ballot the vote stood, for the Observer, 52; for the NEWS, 50; for the Sentinel, 11; and for the Asheville Citizen, 1. On the second ballot the vote stood, for the NEWS, 60; for the Observer, 55; and for the Sentinel, 3.

This formal expression of confidence in the NEWS, from the Democratic party of North Carolina, will inspire us with fresh zeal in behalf of the great and triumphant organization to which we owe allegiance; and make us more determined than ever to lay before the reading public, a Democratic newspaper, worthy of our party and worthy of the people, who have entrusted that party with their interests.

This signal mark of favor could not have been bestowed upon any who would receive it more gratefully, or appreciate more thoroughly the responsibilities accompanying it, than we. It will be our constant effort to prove worthy of it, and leave no one cause to regret its bestowal.

To those friends who extended us such a generous support, and stood by us so gallantly in the conflict of Thursday night, we return our most sincere thanks. For those who opposed us, we cherish no unkindly feeling; and in the future conduct of the NEWS, it shall be forgotten that they preferred our distinguished competitors.

The NEWS will go on with renewed vigor in the blessed work which lies before all the Democratic journals not only in this city and State, but in the whole country; and shall strive to prove entirely worthy of the confidence which has been reposed in us by the party and the people whom we serve.

THE PRESIDENTIAL PROBLEM.

It is not improbable that the American people will soon be brought face to face with the greatest and most formidable conjuncture in National affairs ever experienced on this continent—if we except the momentous issues presented to the country sixteen years ago. It is of the highest importance that the body of the people, as well as those who assume to be their leaders in thought and in action, should be thoroughly enlightened upon the grave questions of constitutional right involved in the pending crisis. This task has been undertaken by the leading minds of the country—those great men who stand beacon lights of intelligence, and virtue, and patriotism along our political shores.

Among all those who have sought to guide the mind of the reading public in this matter, Clarkson N. Potter of New York, stands pre-eminent. The ablest exposition of the views of the Democratic leaders on questions now so much discussed in connection with the Presidential problem, is contained in a letter from this distinguished New York statesman, published in the Northern papers of the 22d instant. It presents the whole case—the fact, the law and the purposes of the National Democratic party as far as it is possible at this time to present them. Mr. Tilden's case is presented in its strongest light; and the course of proceedings which will be adopted by his friends, in the event of the vote of Louisiana being counted for Hayes, is clearly defined.

Mr. Potter recites the election frauds perpetrated in Louisiana during the last four years, by which the popular majority was reversed, and a Republican Governor counted in. He assumes, very properly, that a similar effort is now in progress to cheat the Democratic party in this election. On this basis, he discusses at length the legal, constitutional methods of redress.

Mr. Potter maintains that the President of the Senate has no independent authority to count the votes and declare the result, and that he is subject to the direction of Congress in the discharge of his duties when the certificates are opened. Mr. Potter goes into a long and detailed history of what has been done on former occasions, and cites authorities to show that it has been the uniform practice for Congress to claim and exercise a controlling influence over the count. Among the many instances he quotes the language of Vice-President John Adams in declaring the result in 1797, when he said: "In obedience to the constitution and law of the United States and to the command of both houses of Congress, expressed in their resolutions, passed at the present session, I declare," &c. Mr. Clay, in a speech made on the question of counting the votes of Missouri in 1821, said: "The two houses were called upon to examine the votes for President and Vice President. Of course they are called on to decide what are votes." These are specimens selected from Mr. Potter's long array of precedents and authorities. They all bear in the same direction. He states as the result of his complete examination of the records that "never since the government was established has any Vice-President assumed to count an electoral vote except as the two houses permitted, nor failed to withhold or prevent returns, or to reject or announce votes as the houses directed."

After having established, to his own satisfaction, by a copious citation of precedents, the principle that the President of the Senate is subject to the direction of the two houses in counting the electoral votes, Mr. Potter proceeds to argue that disputed votes cannot constitutionally be counted without the concurrence of both houses. He goes on to say:

> Gentlemen who talk lightly, therefore, of having the Vice President or the Senate receive and count the vote of Louisiana against the objection of the House, or of choosing some energetic man President of the Senate that they may have a forcible officer to lead the Republican party after the 4th of March, or of an interregnum in which General Grant shall hold over, talk rebellion. The House of Representatives will not refuse to attend the counting of the electoral vote. It will permit the counting of every vote which it may judge lawful to be counted; and no vote can be lawfully counted without its concurrence or against its judgement and direction. Whomever by the vote so counted shall appear to have the majority of all the electors appointed will be President, and will be accepted by the Democratic party as such and whomever, if no President be so chosen, the popular branch of the government shall then in due form, choose to be President, will be so accepted by them; and it will be those who may see fit to resist the Executive, thus lawfully elected who will be defying the law.

This is the pith of the whole matter. The Democratic line of action is laid out fully to view in the most authentic manner; for Mr. Potter is a near neighbor of the Democratic candidate, an intimate personal friend who has his fullest confidence, a lawyer of distinguished ability, a statesman whose fairness of mind is universally conceded, a citizen of the highest consideration in New York city—such a man, in short, as Mr. Tilden would naturally select to be the exponent of his views and purposes in a matter which so nearly concerns him and his party.

The Democratic House will be present in full force; and if Louisiana shall have been counted for Hayes by the Returning Board in dishonest defiance of the return[illegible] the certificates from [illegible] objections will be made to counting those votes. If the two houses disagree, the Representatives will adhere to their own decision. At the end of the count they will decide that there has been no choice by the electoral colleges, and proceed at once to elect a President.

This seems to be the settled Democratic programme. More than two months will intervene before they will need to put it in force, and in the meantime it will be the great argumentative battle ground of the two political parties.

What part the Southern Democrats should play in carrying out this programme, is a question of the gravest importance. We cannot consider it too maturely or too calmly. The fate of our country depends upon its solution; and we, of the South, cannot recur to it too often.

DEATH OF WILLOUGHBY F. AVERY.

The announcement of the death of Willoughby F. Avery will carry sorrow to many hearts. He enjoyed a wide-spread popularity, and was generally beloved, possessing as he did so many of those attractive qualities which win the friendship of others.

Capt. Avery earned an enviable reputation as a journalist, in connection mainly with the Charlotte Observer and the Burke Blade. He was a trenchant and witty writer. His pen flowed with good humor. There was the glow of a genial spirit over all that he wrote. Rarely, if ever, did he steep his quill in the gall of bitterness.

Capt. Avery won considerable distinction as a soldier, serving throughout the war as Captain in the 33d N. C. Regiment. He was not excelled by any officer in his command, for coolness and bravery. Nor was he excelled by any one for true fidelity to the cause of the Confederacy.

He has fallen in the prime of manhood, in the hour of rejoicing over the great triumph which his able pen aided in securing. God in his infinite wisdom permitted his mortal vision to rest but for a moment upon the glorious sight of a disenthralled and redeemed North Carolina.

Many will lament the untimely end of one so genial and witty, so brave and patriotic. We will miss him sadly from the journalistic ranks; there is no one to take the place he filled, and we unite with others in deploring his loss.

The clods of the valley will rest upon his brow. Forever has he closed his eyes upon the land of his birth and of his love; forever is he gone from our midst; and nowhere in all the beautiful region of mountain and valley where he must sleep the sleep of death, will rest the marble form of one more brave, more true, or more genial in spirit. May God rest his soul in peace!

AMONG the young members of the House who are coming rapidly forward into the ranks of those who lead in the discussions, is the talented and clever representative from Lincoln. In this Legislature Mr. Cobb makes his first entrance upon public life; and his career will be watched with solicitude by his many friends. Already, he gives bright promise of becoming not only one of the most useful members of the present General Assembly, but an ornament in its debates.

THE first number of the Farmer's Journal under its new management made its appearance on Wednesday. It is filled with matter of the most useful nature, as well as with reading of an entertaining character. The need of an agricultural paper in this State is admitted by all; and the value of sustaining a journal of this character is apparent to all who have studied the farming interests of North Carolina.

POLITICAL NOTES.

The good people who borrowed trouble because the campaign opened so late and languidly, are now in distress because it refuses quietly and suddenly to come to an end.

New York Sun: "Better submit to wrong for the time, however gross, than appeal to any but legal, constitutional and peaceful remedies."

The climate of California holds the lingering Morton enchained. To speak prosaically, he says he won't return to the East notwithstanding telegrams, until the Congressional Chinese Commission has finished its work.

The original meaning of the term "Bulldoze" is a hundred stripes on the bare back. This generous allowance was called a "bull's dose," as it undoubtedly was. This was gradually corrupted to "Bulldoze," and now that word is applied to intimidation of all kinds, meaning about the same as ku-klux.

It is said the Pennsylvania militia are arming and organizing under the leading Radical officers, the purpose of reinforcing the Capital and forcing the inauguration of Mr. Hayes. All right gentlemen; if your people can stand the "national bankruptcy" which Ben Butler says will result from the usurpation, proceed and consummate your little plan. It is less of our funeral than yours, if you did but know it.

In an interview with the venerable W. W. Corcoran, of Washington his opinion on the public situation was solicited. He said: 'I have given my opinion to Congressman Gibson of New Orleans. Here is my telegram to him on the 14th of the month: 'On the Presidential question my mind is clear; any attempt to carry it by fraudulent proceedings of returning boards in the carpet-bag-ridden States ought and will be put down by the people of the North. They have too much a risk to allow a minority President to be fraudulently counted in and inaugurated. Tilden is fairly and honestly and certainly elected, and will be inaugurated the 4th day of [illegible] States."

There lives near Oakland, Cal., a real old fashioned witch who lives in a little hut, cooks and eats her meals in the public highway, and has three dogs for her only companions.

Professor Tenney of Williams college has announced his intention of making an expedition to Labrador next summer, taking with him any students who desire to accompany him. The expedition will start about the 1st of July and will return about the last of September.

John T Raymond was born in Buffalo, New York, April 5, 1836. At seventeen years of age he made his first appearance at the Rochester theatre as Lopez, in the "Honeymoon." When he came upon the stage he was terribly frightened, lost his self-possession, blundered and stuttered and gave unconsciously such a good piece of comic acting that the audience was suffused with laughter.

Ed. B. Spooner died at Brooklyn, N. Y., last Saturday sixty-eight years old. He was for thirty years publisher of the Brooklyn Evening Star an ancient whig paper, and had peculiarly eccentric notions in regard to the mode of circulating it. He would not allow newsboys to sell it on the streets, and wished it to be circulated by subscription only. As a natural result the paper died a natural death.

Mrs. Rebecca Harding Davis, speaking of the characteristics of the crowds of visitors at the centennial, says that suspicion and a resolution not to be humbugged by the foreigners were visible on most countenances. "I told you so," said a woman to her friend to-day, pointing out a priceless vase of craquele of the twelfth century; "that pot has been used. It's second-hand!"

Hughes and Mullins the alleged Lincoln monument robbers and body snatchers, who were recently arrested, have been indicted at Springfield, Ill., for conspiring to steal Lincoln's body and for larceny. There is said to be no doubt of their guilt. It is now alleged that their object was to bury Lincoln's remains in some secluded place, and to give them up only on payment of a large sum of money. They expected to receive two hundred thousand dollars for their singularly horrible undertaking.

THE DAILY NEWS.

SATURDAY.....NOVEMBER 25, 1876.

THE WEEKLY NEWS is the best weekly paper published in North Carolina. It is only one dollar per year, postage paid, contains 32 columns of plain printed news from every section of the country, and important advertisements. Always Cash.

The Comte De Paris.

The Comte de Paris has written to the Secretary of the Southern Historical Society applying for admission as a life member of that society. In this letter he says: "I think that once the war over nothing could be more useful to both sections of the country, nothing could better soothe the bitter feelings borne by that war, than the formation of a kind of confraternity between the soldiers of both sides who had learned to appreciate each other, and who can now calmly discuss, for the benefit of the world, every point of the great contest which they fought with such tenacity. It is in that spirit that I undertook the review of the military events of the civil war. The more I asserted my political sympathies with the cause of the North the more impartial I tried to be when recording and judging military matters." In a second letter he says: "As you say, you cannot expect to win me over to the Lost Cause. * * * In that great quarrel I can no more expect to please the side against which I fought than you can hope to persuade me that I was wrong in joining the Federal armies."

Antonelli's Fortune.

[N. Y. Tribune.]

Cardinal Antonelli's colossal fortune will, it is said, be divided equally among his brother, Count Angelo Antonelli, and three other members of his family, and he has left his valuable and unique collection of precious stones and rare marbles to the Vatican Museum. He inherited much wealth from two uncles. His salary as Cardinal Secretary of State was, it is reported, only $2,500 a year. It is mentioned as one of his admirable traits that, even when most overwhelmed with business and the cares of State, he never omitted for one single day to visit his mother, for whom he entertained the most filial affection.

Careless Legislation.

[N. Y. Tribune.]

A curious instance of careless legislation comes to light in this State. An old law allowed Presidential Electors the same salary as members of the Legislature, which was then three dollars a day, with the invariable mileage. Afterward the salary was raised to $1,500 a session, long or short, without a thought as to the electors. Now these gentlemen can pocket $50,000 for one day's service, and the State can save that amount only by their forbearance.

Wade Hampton's Last Appeal.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 22.—General Hampton has just issued the following address:

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 22, 1876.

To the people of South Carolina:

The board of canvassers have by their unprecedented action to-day shown not only their contempt and defiance of the Supreme Court of the State, but their utter disregard of their own official integrity.

While the grave questions determining the result of the recent elections were pending before the Supreme Court, composed of three judges belonging to the Republican party, and in direct violations of the orders of this tribunal, the board have issued certificates of election to the Republican Presidential electors and to Republican State officers, and have refused to give certificates to Democratic members of the Legislature, shown by returns of this same board to have been elected in the counties of Edgefield and Laurens. This high-handed outrage is well calculated to arouse the indignation of our long suffering people, but I assure them that this daring and revolutionary act of the board can have no legal force whatever.

I appeal to you, therefore, in the fullest confidence that the appeal will not be unheeded, that you will maintain, even under that provocation, your character as an orderly and law-abiding people. During the past exciting canvass you have studiously avoided even the semblance of a purpose to disturb the public peace or to transgress the law. Your cause, and it is the cause of constitutional government of the country, has been carried to the highest court of the State, and we are willing to abide by its decision, feeling assured that this tribunal will see that the laws shall be enforced and justice secured.

WADE HAMPTON.

"O wearisome condition of humanity!"

How many wretched homes in our land! How many heart-broken invalids! Life with many signifies a mere onerous existence. All are subject to disease, but when health is removed the hope is nearly gone out. Sickness is usually incurred through exposure or carelessness. Especially is this true with those diseases peculiar to woman. Through her own imprudence and folly she is made to drag out a miserable existence—a source of annoyance and anxiety to her friends, and any thing but a comfort and pleasure to herself. Exposure to the cold at times when she should be most prudent, and overtaxing her body with laborious employment, are both fruitful causes of many of the maladies from which she suffers. Gradually the bloom leaves her cheeks, her lips grow ashy white, her vivacity departs, she continually experiences a feeling of weariness and general languor, and altogether presents a ghostly appearance. What does she need? Should she take some stimulating drug, which will for the time make her "feel better," or does her entire system demand reparation? She requires something which not only will restore to health the diseased organs, but will tone and invigorate the system. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription will do this. It imparts strength to the diseased parts, brings back the glow of health, and restores comfort where previously there was only suffering.

Every invalid lady should send for "The Peoples Common Sense Medical Adviser," in which over fifty pages are devoted to the consideration of those diseases peculiar to Women. It will be sent, post-paid, to any address, for $1.50. Address, R. V. Pierce, M. D., World's Dispensary, Buffalo, N. Y. Agents wanted to sell this valuable work.

THE STAR AMMONIATED SOLUBLE SUPER PHOSPHATE, having gained on its own merits, the greatest reputation of any Fertilizer ever sold in the United States,—Other manufacturers, are using the trade mark of the "STAR," for their articles, much inferior in quality, and the cost 100 per cent less, in order to make money for themselves, regardless of the interest of the poor farmer. The manufactures of the original "STAR," with ourselves have determined, in order to prevent the great imposition now being practiced in some parts of the United States, and to save the name of that formerly known as the "STAR" to change the trade mark to L. & R. with the above cut which has been duly patented Next Season each sack will contain precisely the same Fertilizer as we sold last season, but will be stamped with the new trade mark. and the words will be printed on the back of each sack with the analysis. We refer to all farmers who have used the STAR as to the reputation and value of the article as a Fertilizer.

SOLUBLE

NOON DISPATCHES

FOREIGN.

Germany will be Neutral--Ministerial Rumor Denied.

BERLIN, Nov. 24.—Bismark in a conversation with the British membeos of the Turkish Conference intimated that Germany would observe a friendly neutrality in the case of a collision. Bismarck did not conceal that he regarded the circumstances as menacing.

LONDON, Nov. 24.—The Times contradicts the rumor that the Earl of Beaconsfield resigns and that the Earl of Derby succeeds and that there are dissentions in the Cabinet.

The Louisiana Electoral Vote.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 24.—Governor Wells announced that the canvass of the electoral vote must be completed by the 6th of December. The members of the political committees occasionally ask questions.

MISCELLANEOUS TELEGRAMS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—The anniversary of the Fenian executions at Manchester was commemorated last night. Col. O'Mahony, Gen. Burk, Col. Luby and J. O'Donovan Rossa spoke. The 69th Irish brigade and Irish volunteers was present.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 24.—Judge Lindley, after argument, decided to take evidence to-day whether the figures in the returns had been altered in the Metcalf and Frost Congressional election.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

THE LOUISIANA RETURNING BOARD.

Fraud Determined On--Little Effort at Concealment.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 24.—The board and committees met. Wells stated that he had received a communication from the Supervisor at Natchatoch, stating that the names of no electors were omitted in the tickets, but thought it only necessary to count electors at large. The Elector for the 4th district, Col. Zacharie, asked whether the returns could be corrected by outside testimony? Wells answered that it was not testimony, but the commissioner elections. Zacharie asked whether the statement was in the returns when opened? Wells said no. Zacharie then asked if its counsel for the Democrats could have an opportunity to contradict the statement? Wells said that the statement could only be contradicted by the ballots themselves. Zacharie asked if the ballots would be sent for? Wells said they would be telegraphed for, but they would not delay the consideration of the case when it comes up. A formal application for the admittance of correspondents was refused. The board is still undetermined regarding the fifth member. Gov. Wells announced, in answer to several appeals and protests, that the rules of the board would not be changed. The application for a democratic representation in the clerical force was refused. The board then went into executive session.

NEW YORK.

How Tweed Looks--An Interview Between Tilden and Hendricks--A North Carolina Supervisor Drowned.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—A gentleman who saw Tweed says that he is in bad health and has lost 70 pounds in flesh. He has lost the old warlike and defiant look and seems nervous and apprehensive. One would hardly recognize the unfortunate gentleman.

A dispatch from Indianapolis says that Hendricks is coming to New York to consult with Tilden.

A dispatch to the Herald says that H. W. Purvis, a member of the South Carolina canvassing board, refused to sign the certificate of members of the Legislature and county officers on account of fraud. He signed the certificates of the electors and State officers.

A dispatch to the Times says Dr. Glover, supervisor of election at Swan Quarter, Hyde county, North Carolina, was found drowned.

LATER.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—The Evening News reports that Gov. Hendricks had a two hour's interview with Gov. Tilden to-day, at which Congressman Hewett was present.

WASHINGTON.

Waite Visits Grant--Avery's Statement.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Chief Justice Waite visited the President. Mr. Stephens has arrived. He uses a crutch on account of rheumatism and has head-ache. He has gained ten pounds of flesh.

Avery, pardoned for whiskey frauds, makes a statement in which the following appears as an endorsement on a letter from McDonald to Avery, which Avery says he sent to the President for advice: "Joyce and McDonald are reliable and trustworthy: Let them have the information they want."

[Signed] U. S. GRANT.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

Board of Canvassers in Contempt--No Doubt of a Continued Defiance.

COLUMBIA, Nov. 24.—The Supreme Court has just issued a rule to the State canvassers and their counsel, D. T. Carbine, to show cause why they should not be attached for contempt in violating the writ of prohibition, issued on the 17th instant, and issuing certificates in defiance of the court. The answer is made returnable at 4 o'clock this afternoon. There is no doubt of a continued defiance of court.

Cotton Broker's Circular.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 24.—The circular of the Liverpool cotton brokers says that cotton has been very moderate in demand and with a comparatively quiet market. Prices were in buyer's favor, but to-day, Thursday, with an increased business, particularly oy the trade, there is more firmness and qualities generally are nearly equal to last Thursday's.—American was inactive last Friday and Saturday and declined ¼d, but since, with an increased demand, has recovered 1-16d. In Sea Island business was very limited and prices steady. In futures business continues limited with prices fluctuating from day to day.

The Herald on the Situation.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—The New York Herald closes a long editorial thus: "The Republican party is not made up of rogues and Tombs lawyers. It contains a great mass of honest, honorable, patriotic men, and these will not tolerate what would make them hang their heads with shame. They will not allow their leaders to resort to trickery, to base devices, to doubtful means to count in their candidate. Already the Republican opinion of the proceedings in the disputed States is such that it has become almost impossible to decently count in Governor Hayes; already the wisest Republicans say, in conversation, that for the sake of their party they hope for Mr. Tilden's return. As yet the honest Republican masses are waiting in silence but with decreasing patience, but any further appearance of trickery, and further continuation of these attempts in the disputed States to take advantage of shallow and legal technicalities, to resort to underhand and unworthy means, such as the recent hearing of testimony charging intimidation on which the Louisiana Returning Board has, it is said, determined, will give voice to the smothered indignation of the Republican party, who cannot stand silent and see themselves and the good fame of their party sold into disgrace."

CINCINNATI, O., Nov. 24.—The estate of Enoch Hayes, who died since the trial, has been mulched in the sum of of $6,000 for breach of promise in favor of Miss Elizabeth West.

FORTRESS MONROE, Nov. 24.—The band of the artillery school, twenty-one pieces, left here for Washington.

Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—For the South Atlantic States falling barometer; north-east winds; stationary temperature. Cloudy and possibly, rainy weather will prevail, attending a storm the centre.
